

A Note to Our Friends,

The Greater St. Louis Mothers of Twins Club has officially cancelled our September 12, 2021 Fall Consignment Sale.

Unfortunately, the leadership at our sale venue has decided to cancel all events until further notice. Sadly, this means we will not be able to have our fall sale this year. We are working to secure a spring date and will send out that information when it becomes available.

We will miss our loyal shoppers, but we hope that you will stay tuned and visit us again in the spring. We wish you health and happiness during these challenging times.

Thank you for your understanding,

The Greater St. Louis Mothers of Twins Club
